GlobalMobile – International Long Distance For Mobile Phones

Today's mobile phone plans are great – ubiquitous coverage, unlimited anytime minutes, unlimited long distance, no roaming charges, no surprises. Unless you try to call internationally, at which point you have to pay ridiculous per-minute long distance charges.

Enter GlobalMobile – the innovative approach to international long distance calling with your cell phone.

GlobalMobile allows you to register your existing cell phone number with GlobalPhone Corporation, a pioneer in cost-saving international long distance services since 1995. Whenever you need to make an international long distance call, you simply call one of our free access numbers, and then enter the international phone number you need to dial. There are no calling card numbers to dial, no access codes to remember, and best of all, you can save up to 75% on your long distances charges.

GlobalMobile Features
